

FALL 2021

TEACH WITH THE MUSEUM

Museums can be transformative teaching spaces.

The Haffenreffer Museum of Anthropology welcomes Brown and RISD instructors and students to teach and learn with the Museum during the Fall 2021 semester.

FALL 2021 | TEACH WITH THE MUSEUM

» REQUEST A GALLERY VISIT TO MANNING HALL

The Museum's gallery in Manning Hall will be open by appointment only to Brown and RISD instructors and students. Visitors can view the current exhibition, Transient Matter: Assemblages of Migration in the Mediterranean. All visitors to the Museum must comply with the latest COVID guidance issued by Brown, found at healthy.brown.edu.

Submit a gallery visit request at least two weeks in advance of your desired date. Appointments can be made Mondays through Fridays from 9 am to 6 pm. Go to bit.ly/HMAGalleryVisit to see the gallery's current availability.

» REQUEST A VIRTUAL CULTURE LAB SESSION

Museum staff can facilitate virtual CultureLab sessions using objects featured in the Online Catalogue. Staff will work with instructors to support coursework with dynamic, object-based learning opportunities for classes via Zoom, including creating highlight groups (examples available on the online catalogue) specifically for your students.

Submit a virtual CultureLab session request at least two weeks in advance of your desired date. Instructors can select from a list of topics or propose specific objects from the Online Catalogue.

» TAKE ADVANTAGE OF VIRTUAL RESOURCES

- View the Transient Matter exhibition online. Use the accompanying discussion guide to deepen class conversations and prompt reflection.
- Explore the Haffenreffer Museum collection via the Online Catalogue.
- View past talks with scholars, artists, and other noted guests.
- Read Museum publications, including past exhibition catalogues.

» DIDN'T FIND WHAT YOU WERE LOOKING FOR?

The Museum is committed to working with instructors to develop teaching and learning opportunities. To request a consultation, email HaffenrefferMuseum@brown.edu with a copy of your syllabus.

